

Your brand. Every platform. Every day.

ClipForge creates short-form video, social media posts, copywriting, and email campaigns — powered by AI, refined by humans. We help brands show up consistently and win.

SERVICES

Short-Form Video

TikTok, Reels, Shorts — scroll-stopping clips that turn viewers into followers and followers into buyers.

Social Media Management

Strategy, scheduling, and daily posting across every platform your audience lives on.

Website & Email Copy

Pages, emails, and sequences written to convert — not just inform.

AI-Generated Content

We build content pipelines that produce more — faster — without burning out your team.

RESULTS

93% of marketers report positive ROI from video content in 2026

68% cost reduction in content production with AI adoption

3–5x more content output vs traditional agency at 30–50% lower cost

82% of all internet traffic is video — up from 73% two years ago

TESTIMONIALS

"Closed 6 figures in 90 days using the video templates. The consistency algorithm finally clicked."

Mia S. — High-Ticket Coach

"Went from 200 to 18K followers in four months. Our email open rates doubled. The AI copy is scary good."

Carlos R. — E-commerce Founder

"I was skeptical of AI. ClipForge changed that. Posted 3x/week without hiring a full-time creator."

Priya K. — Local Service Biz Owner

HOW IT WORKS

We study your brand, your competitors, and your audience.
Then we build a content plan that fits your business goals.

Our AI systems generate scripts, visuals, and copy at scale. Human editors refine every piece before it ships.

We post, track performance, and optimize every week. Your content gets better over time,
not worse.
